

Center on Race &
Social Problems

CRSP Summer Institute

Wednesday, July 29th, 8am-4:30pm

Racial Justice in School Discipline: Disrupting the School-to-Prison Pipeline At Multiple Levels

Join us as we welcome national leaders to our region for a critically important institute on best practices in racially equitable school discipline.

AGENDA:

Breakfast (provided)

Morning Session

Keynote Address: The State of the Field on Racial Justice in School Discipline

Daniel Losen, JD, Ed.M, Civil Rights Project at UCLA. Daniel Losen is one of the nation's leading researchers in the field, and his work has catalyzed efforts around school discipline disparities both nationally and locally in Greater Pittsburgh.

Panel Discussion: Implementing Best Practices in Classrooms, Schools, Districts, and Policies

Udoro Gatewood, Restorative Justice Collaboration of Houston

Sam Pasarow, Principal, Berkeley High School, Berkeley, CA

Nancy Potter, Education Law Center, Pittsburgh, PA

Curtiss Sarikey, Associate Superintendent, Oakland Unified School District, Oakland, CA

Lunch (provided)

Afternoon Session

Training Workshop on Restorative Practice in Schools

Facilitators: Udoro Gatewood & Nicole Harris, Restorative Justice Collaborative of Houston

Space is limited. Please RSVP by 6-21-15 at <http://www.crsp.pitt.edu/node/1815>

Sponsored by the Heinz Foundation and the Falk Foundation