

QUALITY OUT-OF-SCHOOL TIME

HELPS WORKING FAMILIES

to students ages 6 to 18 since 1995. Several of the parents who bring their children to CADAP programs now were participants in the program in the past. Dr. Brooks thrives on this "circle of life" service to families in Mon Valley communities. Whether playing outside on newly-installed playground equipment or enjoying some quiet time in the library and computer center inside, everyone gathers for the daily "home-style cooking" hot lunch. "Our focus is to respond to community need. Parents of these children need a place where their kids are safe and well-cared for. Kids need to know they have value so they grow up well," says Dr. Brooks.

When CADAP programs started this year's summer program in its new location, Dr. Janis C. Brooks knew she would recognize a lot of faces. CADAP programs—which is an acronym for Children and Adult Developmental Agency Programs—has been providing expanded learning

"I drop my son and step-daughter off at 7:15 in the morning and I know they will have a fun, fulfilling, and safe day while I'm working."
